

Heritage Mississauga invites you to join us for a Spring Equinox Sunrise Ceremony
Led by Elder Mark Sault (Migizi Gikinoo'amaagew Inini) on Sunday March 18, 2018 at Sunrise at the Robinson-Adamson House

*On this morning, we choose to celebrate the beginning of Spring,
We give thanks to the Creator for the great gifts of life, intelligence, free will and intuition.
For all of these we are grateful.*

We are proud to welcome Elder Mark Sault (Migizi Gikinoo'amaagew Inini). A Knowledge Keeper of the Mississaugas of the New Credit First Nation, Mark learned many of his teachings from the respected Elders of North Western Ontario when he worked in Thunder Bay with the Seven Generations Education Institute from 1990 to 2014.

Time: Gather at 6:15 a.m., fire lit at 6:30 a.m.

Ceremony: 6:45 a.m.

Location: Heritage Mississauga, 1921 Dundas Street W. Mississauga (Corner of Dundas Street W. and Sir John's Homestead – 1 block west of Mississauga Road)

Cost: Free Event

Contact Heritage Mississauga at: 905-828-8411 ext. "0" or info@heritagemississauga.org for more information
No alcohol or drugs permitted